OUR COMMUNITY

If you're looking to connect with a young, progressive, Christian audience who is passionate about theology and the intersection of faith and daily life, we believe there is no better place than the Homebrewed Christianity network.

Since 2008, the Homebrewed Christianity podcasts and website has been bringing you the best nerdy audiological ingredients so you can brew your own faith. You will find conversations between friends, theologians, philosophers, and scholars of all stripes. What started as a reason for Tripp to interview the authors of his favorite books has turned into a community invested in expanding and deepening the conversation around faith and theology.

OUR HOSTS

Tripp Fuller is a husband to Alecia, Father to Elgin and Khora, a minister, avid Laker fan, competitive home brewer, and a theology nerd pursuing a Ph.D. at Claremont Graduate University. He is also the self-proclaimed president of the John Cobb Fan Club where he holds the title of #FANiac in Chief. Follow Tripp on Twitter at @trippfuller.

Bo Sanders is wrapping up a PhD in Practical Theology at Claremont School of Theology while in full-time ministry. He is a pastor, coffee shop theologian, tattoo evangelist, and a soccer fan. His field of Practical Theology has an inter-disciplinary approach which allows him to be engaged in a wide analysis of diverse subjects. Follow Bo on Twitter at @thebosanders.

LIVE HOME BREWED CHRISTIANITY PODCAST

Our live podcasts garner more listens than any other episodes we produce. We'll program the show around your guests, and they'll have the time of their lives! Pre-sell tickets for $15-20, and everyone gets a Homebrewed glass mug with your logo and as much beer as they can drink - filled by your team if you like!

We have taken the Homebrewed Christianity podcast experience to breweries, conferences, schools, living rooms, and church basements. For each "live podcast", we curate a live experience that is somewhere between a late-night talk show and an episode of Charlie Rose that goes off the rails. It includes interviews, group singing, interactive games, and memorable moments never to be repeated. We work with the host to put together an unforgettable evening we can polish and share with our audience online.

Previous live events include: Progressive Youth Ministry, C21, Claremont School of Theology, Subverting the Norm, Soularize, Transform, Fuller Theological Seminary, the Wild Goose Festival, the American Academy of Religion, and more.

Guests have included: John Cobb, Rob Bell, Brian McLaren, Amy Butler, Rachel Held Evans, Catherine Keller, Jack Caputo, Peter Rollins, Diana Butler Bass, Phyllis Tickle, and plenty of others.
